As with other university presses, we have a steady stream of proposals. To ensure that we respond quickly it is always helpful to have a clear, concise and thorough understanding of the project that you would like to submit. For this reason, we have provided the Proposal Form below to help you with your submission. It is not a form that has to be slavishly followed, but it does cover the most obvious aspects of submitting a proposal.

Please complete the following details:

Author / Editor

Name

Affiliation

Work address

Work telephone number

Work fax number

E-mail address

The book

Brief description of the project's scope and content

Content's list (as well as a list of contributors, if it is an edited collection)*

Why we should publish your book

Why should we publish? What are the particular strengths?

Who is it aimed at?

What are the comparable books? Please list the main competitors. Is there a gap in the currently available literature?

Who will buy the finished publication? Is there a primary and a secondary market?

Essential information

What is your proposed submission date for completion of the manuscript?

What is your ideal word length? If it is an edited collection, how long is each essay?

Would you like pictures, graphs or diagrams? How many?

Have you contacted other publishers?

Do you know of two people in the field whom you would like to read your work?

Please supply a C.V. or a list of previous publications
